THE AUDITORIUM.

Vaudeville De Luxe for Week of Nov. 6 be at a premium at the Auditorium on Monday when Les Valadons will appear in their extraordinary bicycle riding and siack wire walking act, which will make all who see it wonder at the skill and dexterity with which the members of the act perform their different hair-raising stunts. This act has been playing in many lowes different hair-raising stunts. This act has been playing in many towns throughout New England and the middle states for several months with tremendous success, and it is very gratifying to the management of this theater that they have been able to secure them. The expert aerobatic dancers, Parter and La Conda, will also be on Monday's bill and will show many new and novel steps. These elever people also have a line of catchy song mumbers which will strely please. Stanche Aldrach, a very prepossessing song numbers which will surely please. Blanche Abirach, a very prepossessing roung lady with quite a, reputation as a quick change artist, has been secured for the first half of next week also, and her act will add both variety and completeness to this well belanced bill. In the motion picture line for Monday a Nesior film, Across the Divide, will be the feature.

COLLEEN BAWN AT THE BREED. 3,000 FEET OF FILM.

The Breed theater offers Monday and Tuesday of the coming week the powerful remainte Irish drama in three recis entitled Colleen Sawn. This pleture is the one that is making the country talk and is most compelling in its influence for good. The interesting and thrilling drama of the Emrald Edge is familiary to all as it to be compelling. College Payn. He marries her secret-ly and his scheming mother is anxious for him to marry Anne Chute, an heirors hogging thereby to raise the mort-grave on the home place. Danny Mann, a simple minded cripple, seeking to aid his master, departs for Muchross head to do away with the Colleen. He decoys her to the rock in the lake and attempts to drown her, but is shot in the head by Myles na Coppaleen, who mistakes Danny for an otter. The in-jured man escapes and Myles, seeing the object in the water, secures it, and it proves to be Edy. Danny's confes-sion, as seen in the above cut, takes place soon after, but the rescued Col-leen finally returns just as Hardress it about to be married to Anne Chute to recognize her real daughter.

AT POLI'S. The play that has been selected for

Miss Victoria Montgomery's opening week A Woman's Way is one of the most brilliant and scintillating society tomedies seen here in recent years.

Grace George starred in it for a couple of seasons and it was released for the biggest winners with stock but a few weeks ago. It is attill one of the biggest winners with stock companies everywhere and the royalty is held at a high figure. But nothing better could have been chosen for better could have been chosen for is held at a high figure. But nothing better could have been chosen for Miss Montgomery's welcome home, so the matter of high royalty was not considered. The play is really a battle of wits between stwo clever women and never for a moment during its entire time of presentation is it dull or uninteresting. On the contrary, it is almost continually one round of hearty is ughter. And at that it is clean and wholesome counedy, too. Miss Montgomery in Miss George's original role should more than satisfy her most exacting friends, while to the majority of her staunch and loyal admriers—and acting friends, while to the majority of her staumeh and loyal admriers—and there are many of them, too—she will appear more charming and delightful than she ever has before.

The play shows the resourcefulness of a brilliant woman when her husbend thinks he has become infatuated with another woman. Instead of allowing him to go, stirring up a lot of fuss and scandal and wrecking her own. If a she sets to work to show her We she sets to work to show her recreant spouse that he does not know when he is well off. She invites the other woman to her home and there the presence of both her own and r husband's relatives she makes him realize that his wife is really the bet ter women in any and every way, and in the end he is glad to come back to her. Everything about the play is in excellent taste and no better light On Monday afternoon and night, in bonor of Miss Montgomery's return postcard souvenirs in two colors will be presented to the ladies attending either performance. There has been a big demand for seats for these two erformances and a large welcoming rowd of friends is assured.

DANDRUFF

Dandruff means that down near the roots of your hair there is a vast army of little invisible germs or microbes.

And this army never sleeps it wages a war of destruction night and day. It destroys the nourishment that the hair must have in order to grow vigorously and abundantly.

PARISIAN SAGE now sold all over America will destroy these germs and at the same time furnish the hair roots with just the proper nourishment to make hair grow lustrous and lux-priant.

IO.TRY.

"FROST TONIGHT."

Apple-green west and an orange bar, and tue crystal eye of a lone, one and, "Cuid, take the shears and out what you will, 'rost tonight—so clear and dead-still." then I sally forth, half sad, half And I come to the velvet, imperial crowd,
The wine-red, the gold, the crimson, the pied—
The danius that reign by the garden-

The dahlias I might not touch till tonight!
A gleam of the shears in the fading light,
And I gathered them all—the splendid throng.
And in one great sheaf I bore them along.
